Narrator: What do you think God is like? Gregg Harris has today's Discover God.

Gregg: More than one hundred years ago, James Allan penned the classic book entitled, "As a Man Thinketh." It was based on Proverbs 23:7 which says, "For as he thinks within himself, so he is."

Here's a quote from his powerful little book. "A man's mind may be likened to a garden, which may be intelligently cultivated or allowed to run wild. Just as a gardener cultivates his plot, keeping it free from weeds, so may a man tend the garden of his mind, weeding out all the wrong, useless, and impure thoughts, and cultivating toward perfection the flowers and fruits of right, useful, and pure thoughts."

Well let me ask you, how is the garden of your mind? What condition is it in? Is it in good shape? Or is it running wild with weeds and briars. Well, one of the most powerful things you can do to change your life is to tend the garden of your mind by filling it with truths about the character of God. The more you understand the reality of God's goodness, His power, and His character, the more your view of the world around you will change. You will begin to see everything through the lens of God's sovereign power and unlimited goodness. Your view of yourself will change, your view of others will change, and you will learn to see God in every detail of your life. Meditate on the attributes of God, and you will find you life blossoming with eternal fruit.
